PART I.

INTRODUCTION.—REPRESENTATION OF CHAOS.—Orchestra.

RECIT.—Raphael.

In the beginning, God created the heaven and the earth: and the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep.

CHORUS.

And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters: and God said, Let there be light, and there was light.

RECIT.—Uriel.

And God saw the light that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness.

AIR.

Now vanish, before the holy beams,
The gloomy shades of ancient night;
The first of days appears,
Now chaos ends and order fair prevails;
Affrighted fled, hell spirits black in throngs;
Down they sink in the deep abyss
To endless night.

CHORUS.

Despairing cursing rage attends their rapid fall:
A new-created world springs up at God's command.

RECIT.—Raphael.

And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament, and it was so.

Now furious storms temptestuous rage;
As chaff by the winds are impelled the clouds;
By heaven's fire, the sky is inflamed;
And awful thunders are rolling on high;
Now from the floods in streams ascend reviving showers of rain,
The dreary wasteful hail, the light and flaky snow.

AIR.—Gabriel.

The marvellous work behold amazed
The glorious hierachy of heaven;
And to th' ethereal vaults resound
The praise of God and of the second day.

CHORUS.

And to th' ethereal vaults resound
The praise of God and of the second day.

RECIT.—Raphael.

And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear, and it was so. And God called the dry land earth, and the gathering of waters called He seas; and God saw that it was good.

AIR.

Rolling in foaming billow
Uplifted, roars the boisterous sea.
Mountains and rocks now emerge,
Their tops into the clouds ascend.
Through the open plains out-stretching wide,
In serpent error rivers flow.
Softly purling glides on
Through silent vales the limpid brook.

RECIT.—Gabriel.

And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself upon the earth; and it was so.

AIR.

With verdure clad the fields appear,
Delightful to the ravish'd sense;
By flowers sweet and gay
Enhanced is the charming sight.
Here fragrant herbs their odors shed;
Here shoots the healing plant;
With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung;
In leafy arches twine the shady groves;
O'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.

RECIT.—Uriel.

And the heavenly host proclaimed the third day, praisiug God, and saying:—

CHORUS.

Awake the harp, the lyre awake,
And let your joyful song resound,
Rejoice in the Lord, the mighty God:
For He both the heaven and the earth
Hath cloth'd in stately dress.

RECIT.—Uriel.

And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of heaven, to divide the day from the night, and to give light upon the earth; and let them be for signs and for seasons, and for days and for years. He made the stars also.

RECIT.—Accompanied.

In splendour bright is rising now the sun,
And darts his rays; a joyful, happy spouse,
A giant proud and glad
To run his measured course,
With softer beams and milder light,
Steps on the silver moon through silent night;
The space immense of azure sky,
In numerous hosts of radiant orbs adorns.
The sons of God announce the fourth day,
In songs divine, proclaiming thus his power—

CHORUS.

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His work displays the firmament.

TRIO.

To-day that is coming speaks it the day,
The night that is gone to following night,

CHORUS.

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His work displays the firmament.

TRIO.

In all the lands resounds the word,
Never unperceived, ever understood.
The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The wonder of His work displays the firmament.

PART II.

RECIT.—Gabriel.

And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

AIR.

On mighty pens uplifted soars
The eagle aloft and cleaves the air
In swiftest flight to the blazing sun.
His welcome bids to morn the merry lark,
And cooing calls the tender dove his mate.
From every bush and grove resound
The nightingale's delightful notes;
No grief affected yet her breast,
Nor to a mournful tale were tun'd
Her soft enchanting lays.

RECIT.—Raphael.

And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth; and God blessed them, saying: Be fruitful all and multiply.

Ye winged tribes, be multiplied
And sing in every tree; multiply,—
Ye finny tribes, and fill each watery deep;
Be fruitful, grow and multiply,
And in your God and Lord rejoce.

BERLIN, - ONTARIO.

And the angels struck their immortal harps, and the wonders of the fifth day sung.

TRIO.—Gabriel.

Most beautiful appear, with verdure young adorn'd
The gently sloping hills; their narrow sinuous veins
Distil, in crystal drops, the fountain fresh and bright.

Uriel.

In lofty circles play, and hover in the air,
The cheerful host of birds; and in the flying whirl,
The glittering plumes are dyed as rainbows by the sun.

Raphael.

See flashing through the wet in thronged swarms
The fish on thousand ways around,
Upheaved from the deep, the immense leviathan
Sports on the foaming wave.

Gabriel, Uriel, Raphael.

How many are Thy works, O God!
Who may their numbers tell!

TRIO AND CHORUS.

The Lord is great, and great His might,
His glory lasts for ever and for evermore.

RECIT.—Raphael.

And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind; cattle and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind.

Straight opening her fertile womb,
The earth obey'd the word.
And teem'd creatures numberless,
In perfect forms and fully grown.
Cheerful roaring stands the tawny lion. With sudden leap
The flexible tiger appears. The nimble stag
Bears up his flying head. With flying mane,
And fiery look, impatient neighs the noble steed.
The cattle in herds, already seek their food
On fields and meadows green.
And o'er the ground as plants are spread
The fleecy, meek and bleating flocks.
Unnumbered as the sands in swarms arose
The hosts of insects. In long dimension
Creeps with sinuous trace the worm.

AIR.

Now heaven in fullest glory-shone;
Earth smil'd in all her rich attire;
Th' room of air by fowl is fill'd;
The water swell'd by shoals of fish;
By heavy beasts the ground is trod;
But all the work was not complete;
There wanted yet that wondrous being,
That, grateful, should God's power admire,
With heart and voice his goodness praise.

RECIT.—Uriel.

And God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him. Male and female created He them.

He breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul.

AIR.

In native worth and honour clad,
With beauty, courage, strength, adorn'd,
Erect, with front serene, he stands
A man, the lord and king of nature all.
His large and arched brow sublime,
Of wisdom deep declares the seat!
And in his eyes with brightness shines
The soul, the breath and image of his God.
With fondness leans upon his breast
The partner for him form'd,
A woman, fair and graceful spouse.
Her softly smiling, virgin looks,
Of flowry spring the mirror,
Bespeak him love, and joy, and bliss.

RECIT.—Raphael.

And God saw everything that He had made, and behold it was very good; and the heavenly choir, in song divine, thus closed the sixth day:

CHORUS.

Achieved is the glorious work;
The Lord beholds it, and is pleas'd.
In lofty strains let us rejoice,
Our song let be the praise of God.

TRIO.—Gabriel and Uriel.

On Thee each living soul awaits,
From Thee, O Lord, all seek their food.
Thou openest Thy hand,
And all are filled with good.

Raphael.

But when Thy face, O Lord, is hid,
With sudden terror they are struck;
Thou tak'st their breath away,
They vanish into dust.

Gabriel, Uriel and Raphael.

Thou sendest forth Thy breath again.
And life with vigor fresh returns;
Revived earth unfolds new strength
And new delights.

CHORUS.

Achieved is the glorious work;
Our song let be the praise of God.
Glory to His Name for ever.
He, sole, on high, exalted reigns. Hallelujah.

PART III.

INTRODUCTION.—MORNING.

RECIT.—Uriel.

In rosy mantle appears, by music sweet awak'd,
The morning young and fair;
From heaven's angelic choir
Pure harmony descends, on ravish'd earth.
Behold the blissful pair,
Where hand in hand they go: their glowing looks
Express the thanks that swell their grateful hearts
A louder praise of God their lips
Shall utter soon; then let our voices ring
United with their song.

DUET.—Adam and Eve.

By Thee with bliss, O bounteous Lord,
The heaven and earth are stor'd.
This world so great, so wonderful,
Thy mighty hand has fram'd.

CHORUS.

For ever blessed be his power,
His Name be ever magnified.

Adam.

Of stars, the fairest pledge of day,
That crown'st the smiling morn;
Thou sun, that bright'nest all the world,
Thou eye and soul of all;

CHORUS.

Proclaiming in your extended course,
Th' Almighty power and praise to God;

Eve.

And thou that rul'st the silent night,
And all ye starry host;
And everywhere spread wide his praise
In choral songs about.

Adam.

Ye mighty elements, by His power
Your ceaseless changes make;
Your dusky mists and dew'y steams
That rise and fall thro' the air;

CHORUS.

Resound the praise of God our Lord:
Great His Name and great His might.

Eve.

Ye purling fountains tune His praise,
And wave your tops, ye pines:
Ye plants exhale, yet flowers breathe,
To him your balmy scent.

Adam.

Ye that on mountains stately tread,
And ye that lowly creep;
Ye birds that sing at heaven s gate,
And ye that swim the stream.

Eve and Adam.

Ye creatures all, extol the Lord.

CHORUS.

Ye creatures all, extol the Lord;
Him celebrate, Him magnify.

Eve and Adam.

Ye valleys, hills and shady woods,
Made vocal by our song;
From morn to eve you shall repeat
Our grateful hymn of praise.

CHORUS.

Hail, bounteous Lord! Almighty, hail!
Thy word call'd forth this wond'rous frame,
The heavens and earth Thy power adore;
We praise Thee now and evermore.

RECIT.—Adam.

Our duty we have now perform'd,
In offering up to God our thanks;
Now follow me, dear partner of my life
Thy guide I'll be; and every step
Pours new delight into our breasts,
Shows wonders everywhere.
Then may'st thou feel and know the high degree
Of bliss the Lord allotted us,
And with devoted heart His bounties celebrate:
Come, follow me, thy guide I'll be.

Eve.

O thou! for whom I am, my help, my shield,
My all, thy will is law to me;
So God our Lord ordains, and from obedience
Grows my pride and happiness.

DUET.—Adam and Eve.

Adam. Graceful consort, at thy side
Softly fly the golden hours;
Ev'ry moment brings new rapture,
Ev'ry care is lull'd to rest.

Eve. Spouse adored, at thy side,
Purest joys o'erflow the heart;
Life and all I have is thine,
My reward thy love shall be.

Both. The dew-dropping morn, O how she quickens all!
The coolness of ev'n, O how she all restores!
How grateful is of fruits the savour sweet!
How pleasing is of fragrant bloom the smell!
But, without thee, what is to me
The morning dew,—the breath of ev'n,
The sav'ry fruit,—the fragrant bloom.
With thee is every joy enhanced,
With thee delight is ever new,
With thee is life incessant bliss,
Thine, thine it all shall be.

RECIT.—Uriel.

O! happy pair, and happy still might be;
If not misled by false conceit
Ye strive at more than granted is,
And more desire to know than know ye should.

CHORUS.

Sing the Lord ye voices all,
Magnify His name thro' all creation.
Celebrate His power and glory,
Let His name resound on high.
Jehovah's praise for ever shall endure. Amen.
